The Sounds of Surveyors

The school leaders have initiated the “Sounds of Surveyors” suggestion boxes to help students share their achievements, express their feelings and assert their ideas about the school.

We want to provide a way to connect with the students of Surveyors Creek, let them have the right to speak up and to improve our school to make a better environment for everyone. Some of these suggestions will be published in the newsletter.

Mrs Browne

School Leaders